Blossom to Coach Yale.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 9.—Jack Blossom, captain of the Yale baseball team in 1915, will coach the team next season. It was learned here today. Blossom succeeds Frank Quinby, who resigned. Blossom is a former Cleveland boy, but has been in business in New York since his graduation.

Local Boy With Braves Says Club Will Win

Martin, Former Georgetown Star, Picks Stallings' Club to Grab the Flag.

OTHER SPORTING GOSSIP

Griffmen Would Be Up in Front but for Early Setback at Hands of Yanks.

By WILLIAM PEET.

Billy Martin, former Georgetown football and baseball star, who until a short time ago was a member of the Boston Braves, vouchsafed the information that Stallings' club would surely win the National League flag. "I've seen all of the National League clubs play this year, and the fact that I have been dismissed by Owner Griffith does not alter the opinion I hold regarding the Braves: I believe that they not only have the best club in the National League, so far as inside baseball is concerned, but also the greatest. I would bet every cent I've got that Boston will win the National League pennant this season," he said.

The Braves are today in third place, but only four games behind the Phillies, and the season still has nearly four weeks to run, so you can figure out for yourself the chances of this club for the National League gonfalon.

Had the Griffmen been able to clean up against the New Yorks early in the season as has been the case the past two weeks, when Washington out of nine games played won seven, the Nationals today would be right up among the leaders and seriously considered as pennant contenders.

Winning a double-header from the Donovan clan yesterday after the New Yorks had grabbed three straight from the Boston Red Sox shows that the Griffmen are going at the clip which was predicted for them early in the race.

Just why the Nationals failed to deliver last spring still remains a mystery to many of the local fans.

The Nationals today will take things easy, but on Saturday open a four-game series against the Cleveland Indians. Manager Lee Fohl has his bunch going at top speed, and three games will not be easy. The Nationals are sure to be called upon to exert themselves if the series is to be captured.

TIGERS ARE PUSHED IN BEATING INDIANS

Detroit Captures Long-drawn-Out Contest from Cleveland by 6 to 5. Macks Easy for Boston.

Cleveland, Sept. 9.—The Tigers noosed out the Indians, 6 to 5, today in a long-drawn-out contest. One of the rankest exhibitions of pitching seen on the home grounds this year was witnessed by about 1,500 fans. The Indians used three pitchers and gave twelve bases on balls, besides a balk. The holding of the Indians also was miserable, seven errors being charged against them. Score: Detroit..... 1001193111 R.H.E. Cleveland..... 100002020-5-7 R.H.E. Batteries—Lindemann, Boland, Damm, and Stanage; Bauman, Carter, and O'Sullivan. Umpires—Messrs. Evans and Chitt.

Hand Macks Men. Boston, Sept. 9.—The Red Sox played rings around Connie Mack's team today, winning 5 to 0. Shore held the Athletics to one hit. Speaker's circus match, however, there will always be a feature. Score: Boston..... 100002020-5-7 R.H.E. Philadelphia..... 000000000-0-1 R.H.E. Batteries—Knoblock and McVey; Shore and Carr; Umpires—Messrs. O'Loughlin and Hildebrand.

When I was in there playing, it was different, but the strain of sitting at the bat, and the ball being pitched over the fence, was too much for my nature.

"Some time ago I consulted physicians, who informed me that unless I gave up the sport soon, my health would be endangered. I am sorry the Pirates did not make a better showing during my last year."

"It is hard to leave Pittsburgh, where I have had so many happy associations, and, furthermore, I regret having to part from President Dreyfuss, whom I consider one of the fairest and best employers it has ever been my good fortune to meet. However, there will always be a warm place in my heart for Col. Barney Forbes Field and the Pittsburgh fans."

New York horsemen are busy getting their stables ready for the meeting which begins at Havre de Grace next Wednesday. Tomorrow John Sanford will ship fifteen head to the Harford County track, John Whalen sixteen and Billy Garth nineteen.

Sunday the stable of August Belmont, in charge of Sam Hildreth, thirty in number, will be sent on. Max Hirsch will also ship sixteen, George Odum fifteen, R. F. Carmichael sixteen, Jack Goldborough fifteen, J. O. Talbot twelve, and L. S. Thompson sixteen. The Thompson bunch will be in charge of Jimmy Rowe, and includes some of the cracks of the year.

Directum I Breaks Record

Hartford, Sept. 9.—Directum I broke the track record here this afternoon, when he stepped a mile in 1:58. The time for the quarters follows: 0:30 1/2, 1:00 1/2, 1:29 1/2, and 1:58 1/2. The former record was 2 minutes flat and was established by Star Pointer in 1899.

HEAT FAILS TO HALT HILLTOP GRIDIRONERS

Squad at Georgetown Is Given Longest Practice of Season—Forward Pass Is Tried.

Coach Albert Exendine did not let the torrid heat of yesterday interfere with the work of the Georgetown University football team, but the squad of twenty-five players who were on hand for practice, were driven through the longest and hardest training since reporting last Monday.

The shooting of forward pass was tried for the first time today, and the form shown by most of the candidates who were on the receiving end of the plays, gives promise of the Hill-toppers developing this line of play as the mainstay of the season. The players making the passes were compelled to cover the side of the field the play was made upon as twice last season the neglect of this duty cost the Blue and Gray two touchdowns.

Three drop kickers were sent to one end of the field to try their toes at shooting the ball over the goal. Hanlon, O'Connor and Kilroy, new men for the squad this season, were the trio who were doing the kicking and each showed good form, considering the early season workout.

Bill Ward, Gromley, McCarthy and Green were given individual instruction at punting, while a great deal of the time was spent on teaching the candidates quick starts, falling on the ball and changing the ball while dodging a tackle. The formations which were given out in the morning at the blackboard talks, were used when the squad was divided into two teams.

On the first eleven, Carter played center, Green and Fitzgerald, guards; Ward and Gromley, tackles; Breton and McGuire, ends; and Kilroy, halfbacks. Wall fullback and McNamara quarterback. The second eleven was composed of Kellecki, center, Barron and O'Connor, guards; Riordan and McCarthy, tackles; Bogan and King ends, Burland fullback, Landreau and Bailey, halfbacks, and Malone quarterback. Coach Exendine expects to hold scrimmage early next week.

BALTIMORE HIKERS MADE JOURNEY HERE

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 9.—The first of a series of hikes scheduled by the Fuller Club members of Fuller Memorial Baptist Sunday School, was held on Saturday. Five members of the club, Messrs. ### TYLER HURLS NO-HIT GAME, BUT IS BEATEN

Braves' Southpaw Sets Dodgers Down Without a Bingle, but Loses, 1 to 0. Other National Contests.

New York, Sept. 9.—"Lefty" Tyler, of the Boston Braves, pitched a no-hit game against the Dodgers this afternoon, but lost the game, 1 to 0. The only semblance of a safety was made by Myers on first base, and the play was made at second for Myers. It failed, and Getz and Myers both were safe. The scorers decided to call the play a batters' choice, and denied Getz a single.

Pfeiffer, pitching for the Dodgers, allowed only two hits, which makes the pitching duel one of the most wonderful in the history of baseball, only two hits having been made through the nine innings.

The Dodgers scored the only run of the game in the second inning. After Getz had bunted, he and Myers worked a double steal, which landed Myers on third. He scored on an out. Score: Boston..... 000000000-0-2 R.H.E. Philadelphia..... 010000000-0-1 R.H.E. Batteries—Messrs. Klem and Egan.

Quakers Increase Lead. Philadelphia, Sept. 9.—The Phillies increased their lead today by winning two games from the Giants, 3 to 0 and 2 to 0. The visitors made three hits off Alexander's delivery in the first, the twirler hanging up his twenty-sixth win for the season. Benton, for the Giants, was given raving support by his mates.

Heavy hitting featured the second affair. Cravath made his daily home run, the twentieth for this season. Scores: First game..... R.H.E. Philadelphia..... 000000000-3-0 R.H.E. New York..... 000000000-0-2 R.H.E. Batteries—Benton, Schupp, and Myers; Alexander and Burns. Umpires—Messrs. Hildebrand and O'Day.

Second game..... R.H.E. Philadelphia..... 000000000-2-0 R.H.E. New York..... 000000000-0-2 R.H.E. Batteries—Benton and Damm; Wendell, Deane and Burns and Adams. Umpires—Messrs. Orth and Hildebrand.

Cincinnati Wins Two.

St. Louis, Sept. 9.—The tall-red Reds joined the Cardinals today by winning a double-header, 4 to 3 in fourteen innings and 2 to 0 in the first. The first game was a thriller, the Reds leading the first nine and the Cardinals leading the last three. The Cardinals won the first game by a triple in the ninth and Rodgers won by opening the fourteenth with a triple and scoring on Wagner's sacrifice fly. The Cardinals had seventeen left on bases. In No. 2 Schneider was tight in the pinches, while Damm was easy in the early innings. Scores: First game..... R.H.E. Cincinnati..... 000000000-4-3 R.H.E. St. Louis..... 000000000-3-0 R.H.E. Batteries—Damm and Wagner; Saline, Robinson and Snyder and Gonzales. Umpires—Messrs. Quinn and O'Day.

Second game..... R.H.E. Cincinnati..... 000000000-2-0 R.H.E. St. Louis..... 000000000-0-2 R.H.E. Batteries—Schneider and Wingo; Damm, Nelson and Gonzales. Umpires—Messrs. Quinn and O'Day.

GIBBONS FAVORITE IN SATURDAY FIGHT

Paddy Baumann gave the Yankees a good start in the first inning of the first game. He hit a home run to left center that scored Cook ahead of him. Cook, who walked, and Alexander followed. The Yankees didn't get very much further until the sixth. Here, with one out, Cook scratched a hit to Gandil, Peckinpaugh beat a ball to Shanks, when Cook's third uncovered he delivered a delayed steal and got all the way home on Harper's wild throw. Peck was left on third.

Ayers Relieves Harper in Time to Save First Game of Two-Play Killer.

GALLIA AGAIN PUZZLES Spitalball Hurler in Form and Nationals Capture Farewell Combat After Hot Fight.

New York, Sept. 9.—The best the Yankees got out of today's double-header was the worst of it. Old Fox Griffith made a clean sweep of the series. He came from behind for victory in the first game by a score of 5 to 3, and led all the way to a triumph in the farewell.

We are glad that Griffith and his Senators have gone back to the Capital, where they belong. Their presence anywhere in the immediate vicinity of the Yankees is exasperating. Donovan's men always behave just as if they were made especially to furnish game for the Nationals. So exasperating becomes the situation at times that Wild Bill Donovan actually grows so much wilder that he is tempted to take a fling at them himself, and then it is time to phone the undertaker.

That's what happened today, anyhow. If Bill had only saved himself for some easy club like the Red Sox, his team might have been able to bag at least one of the three. The gallant manager injected himself into the box score in full force because of his shortcomings rather than his virtues. Almost quicker than a flash he was out of the game. New York's three to nothing lead look like a question mark in the game.

Carroll Brown Goes Bad.

Carroll Brown, the Adonis of Wild Bill's pitching staff, was on the long end of a 3 to 0 tally when he got the game in the seventh inning of the first game. Mr. Brown was in difficulty, though not necessarily in danger. He had passed a man, following a single with no one out, but earlier in the game he had come out of almost as bad scrapes, with some fair luck, fine pitching, and good support.

Mr. Brown, when in the mood, can be as wild as anybody. Donovan may have had the right idea in pulling Carroll out after the start to go wild. The second game was a thriller, the Yankees leading the first nine and the Cardinals leading the last three. The Cardinals won the first game by a triple in the ninth and Rodgers won by opening the fourteenth with a triple and scoring on Wagner's sacrifice fly. The Cardinals had seventeen left on bases. In No. 2 Schneider was tight in the pinches, while Damm was easy in the early innings. Scores: First game..... R.H.E. Cincinnati..... 000000000-4-3 R.H.E. St. Louis..... 000000000-3-0 R.H.E. Batteries—Damm and Wagner; Saline, Robinson and Snyder and Gonzales. Umpires—Messrs. Quinn and O'Day.

Second game..... R.H.E. Cincinnati..... 000000000-2-0 R.H.E. St. Louis..... 000000000-0-2 R.H.E. Batteries—Schneider and Wingo; Damm, Nelson and Gonzales. Umpires—Messrs. Quinn and O'Day.
